

Chesapeake Society of Treasure Hunters

Newsletter for: February 19, 2009

Members Present: Members: 24 New Members: 2 Guest: 1

Treasurer's Report: January Balance $ 837.06

Winners:

Leg of Gold: Jim Jacobs

50/50: Phil Meyers

Silver Dollar: Leo Fisher

Old Business:

We were unable to show the movie "Search for the Atocha" as there was not a large enough screen.

Closed Hunt: We will try to schedule the closed Hunt for Sunday, May 3. If that is not available, will try for May 17. Bill will check and let us know. The entry fee was increased to $50 per person and the Hunt will start at 11 a.m., so try to get there around 10 a.m as everything needs to be set up. It was also decided that each person who pays the entry fee will receive a token. There was a discussion about which items to select for prizes, and that discussion will continue at the next meeting.

Lil John will be out of town for the next meeting, and Bill and Sandy may also be out of town. Everyone should still show up and we will still conduct the meeting.

New Business:

John Hammond had a very serious spinal problem and is still in a nursing home. Nina said that he would love to hear from everyone. He can be reached at 410-455-7663.

Henry Briggs will bring the refreshments for the next meeting.

Lil John won the prize for the best item on the Display Board. Everyone please remember to bring your found items for display.
