

CHESAPEAKE TREASURE CLUB NEWSLETTER

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Well, I hope everyone had a TERRIFIC TIME and enjoyed the All the Food. It sure seem like there were many trips to the food and desert bar, just so many nice treasures to eat and not hard to find. I really want to thank everyone that came to make our last meeting of the year such a fun time and share in each other's company.

Here's the rundown on the lucky winners:

Bob Daniels won the Silver Dollar.

“Old Lucky Ed Ball “ won the 50/50 of $35.00 and Sandy Anderson's Melt in your mouth box of Christmas Candy.

“Young lucky Ron Peterson” won the first half of the 50/50 of $18.00 And the Silver Round.

Leo Fisher won the second half of the 50/50 of $18.00.

Tom Jacobs won the Ace 300 and Miss Lucky Lady Marge Peters won the Gold Coin

Just to note that our bill at Cactus Willies was only a mere $336.99 with the tip but Bill and I also gave the two working the room an extra $10.00 a piece.

Note: I have gotten Mark Regan to speak at the next meeting about the Confederate Submarine “ The Hundley”. It most certainly will be interesting for he had searched for it but just missed finding it. He is now the Head Historian and writer of the book “ The Hundley” for which the movie was produced from.

The next meeting is January 23, on a Wednesday. I'm sending this out early so everyone can make this meeting, and maybe bring some guest to hear this talk.

Thanks and I look forward to seeing you all there.

LIL John
