Auditorium Acquires New Look With Compliments of Anchor

The auditorium of Hialeah High School has acquired the "forward look." This forward look is in the objects of bright curtains and cornice for the big picture window in the lobby, donated by the Anchor Club. This club in addition to the curtains has placed two six-foot bench-like couches in front of the window.

The thought behind Anchor's project is that in the following years it can continue to improve and brighten the auditorium. Hialeah being a new school lacks what might be called luxuries in these places that the public sees so often. It is the purpose of Anchor to match the quality of the decor in the lobby to the fine quality of performances that are played on the stage.

The drapes were made and hung by Brown's Interiors. "Mrs. Dorothea Boyer, consultant to the club, was very helpful and patient," said Susan Charles, president of Anchor, "for, have you ever tried getting 40 girls to decide on one piece of material?"

The material finally selected is a brightly colored hand painted fabric with a pale yellow background. The wall on which the drapes hang was painted to match this background. The walnut finished benches were made by Mullin's of North Miami. Chocolate cushions make the benches comfortable as well as attractive. The Anchor Club has been planning this project all year and set the deadline for the Senior Class play. The girls are proud of their accomplishments for, as one Anchor member stated, "It takes a lot of bake sales and voo-doo dolls to furnish an auditorium."

Four Plays Set

Hialeah High Dramatics Department will present four one-act plays. A contest between the plays will be held and one out of the four will be chosen as the best.

The contest will be around the last of April and held in the auditorium.

The plays and their cast are: MINOR MIRACLE—a drama, Bruce Barton, Larry Bartlett, Ryan Mitchell, John Cook, and Bette Wolfe as the student director.

THE SECRET—a drama, Linda DeLoach, Karen Carley, Pamela Ball, Joyce Jenkins, Sandy Howe, Pat Drake, Marty Duhse, Eileen Lahman, and student directors, Georgia Phillips, and Eileen Lahman.

THE TRYSTING PLACE — a comedy, Ann Modaferrri, John Burnett, Jo Ann Bujold, Charlotte Harney, Mike Willis, and Mike Karpchuk, and Trudy Green as director.

THE ANCHOR—a drama, Ruth McCormick, Janie Goff, Rose Camus, and Janette Wright. The student directors are Frankie Fury and Bill Baughn.

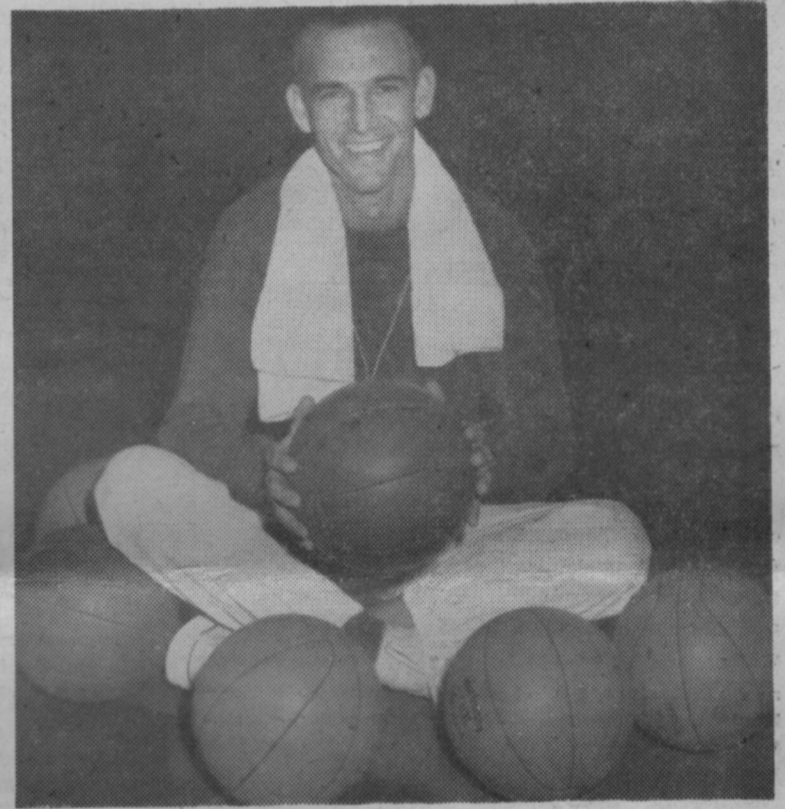

BERNIE BUTTS IN ACTION—before being named to Parade Magazine's All-American high school basketball team. Coach Roy Brawner should be given much of the credit in helping Bernie to success.

Only Southern Player Picked

BERNIE (BOOM BOOM, MR. MIRACLE) BUTTS brought to Hialeah its most coveted honor in the sports field since the structure was erected this season when he was named to Parade Magazine's All-American High School

Four Attended S. C. Confab In Palm Beach

Four Hialeah High students attended the Student Council convention in Palm Beach, April 17-19.

The representatives to the state meeting were Betty Kraus, this year's vice-president; Gary Vergo and Linda Keen, next year's president and recording secretary respectively and Tony Saladino, a room representative. Miss Ann Combs chaperoned the group.

The delegation went up on a bus with representatives from Jackson, Edison, Miami High and other high schools.

Fair Names Two

Congratulations are in order for Virginia O'Dell and William Sutton for having won honorable mentions at the recent annual Science Fair.

Virginia is a tenth grader. She entered a project on the tropism in plants. William is a twelfth grader. His project was a spectroscope.

'Around the World...' Music Theme

"When in Rome do as the Romans do," but in the case of Saturday, April 11, this saying involved more than Rome.

The Hialeah High Music Department chose "Folk Music Around the World" as the theme for the annual student production.

Each class took a different country and portrayed the particular music and dress of that area.

A Jamaican theme was chosen by

Donaldson's Spelling Wins Championship

The final speldown of the high school section of the Miami Herald Spelling Bee proved Paul Donaldson to be the top speller of Hialeah High School. Elaine Pent, a last year's winner, is to be the alternate at the contest in which all schools in Dade county compete.

Masson Robertson from the eleventh grade and Kevin Moorehan from the tenth came out tops in the grade level winners.

The contest started with room contests in English classes from which the best spellers were selected. These spellers were chosen from ten grade winners.

the first period and such songs as "Hold 'em Joe" and "Maryann" took the spotlight. The highlight of this part of the production was a solo dance by Mirta Rodriguez.

Second period took you on a magical journey to the land of palm trees and hula skirts with the "Hawaiian War Chant," "Hawaiian Wedding Song" and "Happy Talk." The atmosphere reminded the audience that the new state has many old and wonderful traditions.

Kimonas and flowers of bright colors set the stage awl when third period made their way across the world to Japan. A Japanese legend "The silver shoe" came to life with Sheila Thompson and Gloria Martinez. The whole chorus sang "Sakura" and Bobbie Sellers soloed on "Sayanora."

Gay Paris and fifth period joined in with a "Can-Can" to make the folk music of France a real part of the show.

Sixth period stayed right at home at home with the music of the "good old U.S.A." Music through the ages and even a Charleston told the wonderful story of the different eras that made American music the most unique in the world.

Basketball squad. Bernie was named to the first team along with four others from the Northern and Western sections of the United States.

The article appeared in The Miami Herald on Sunday, March 29, and Bernie appeared on the Dave Garroway "Today" show Monday morning at 7:45 with the rest of the team.

This was the first time in the three years that PARADE has featured an All-American team that a Florida high school player has made the squad—and HIALEAH WAS THE FIRST. The six-foot guard was also the only player this season to be named to the team from South of the Mason-Dixon line. This includes the first through fourth teams.

It is no wonder that Bernie made the team. He has had scholarship offers from more than 20 colleges and the team was selected by a poll of the college coaches throughout the nation. Among these offers are almost every major college in the south and numerous ones from the east and midwest.

BERNIE BROKE SCORING RECORDS

During the 1959 season, Bernie broke three scoring records and led the Thoroughbreds to one of their best seasons in history. In a game against Broward he scored 61 points to set a new single-game scoring record which will be very hard to top.

His season total of 645 points was 56 better than Richie Berger's (Miami Beach) 589 set in 1958. Bernie broke this record with three games remaining in the season.

He also compiled a 29.6 average for 22 games to break another record and outscore everyone in the state by doing this. His only disappointment was that the T-Breds didn't get to go to the State Basketball Tournament in Gainesville.

The slender senior from Syracuse, New York, was very excited when he received the news that he had been picked as one of the top five players in the country. He had won many awards but this was the tops. He said, "I feel that this is the greatest honor that a high-school player can receive. It's just the greatest."

APPEARS ON "DAVE GARROWAY SHOW"

Bernie and his family knew of the honor the week before the announcement was made public. That Wednesday he left for the University of Tennessee with Lou Moran and Coach Landon Dart to tour the campus. He returned to Hialeah Saturday afternoon. At ten that night he was on a plane bound for New York. He met the other four "all-stars," Arthur Heyman from Oceanside, New York (Please turn to Page 7)
