

Clubs Sponsor Beatnik Ball & Bums Rush Dance

"Beards, calypso pants, and sandals, shades of the Bum's Rush."—It was the Sadie Hawkins dance.

Held annually by Wheel Club, the dance gave Hialeah's suppressed females a chance to date that secret beau, because the girls asked the boys. This reverse treatment did not end with invitation only. The girls were expected to furnish transportation and expenses also.

For those frustrated sufferers of the formal dress, the dance let them release their tensions in attire just as the 'Lil Abner comic strip dictates.

This year, instead of leaving behind all memories of such a fond occasion, one can look forward to another, which may prove even more interesting.

The Beatnik Ball will be held in the near future, at school. The theme for this dance being practically anything, as loyal Key Club patrons attend with the pose of the Beatniks. Key Club hopes it's a pose.

HONOR SERVICE CLUBS are competing for the most outstanding Club of the year. Club Leaders, l to r, John Olivero, Key; Charlene Gould, Y-Teen; Bill Baughn, Tri-M; Vernon Futrell, Hi-Y; Bill McIver, Wheel; Donna Hermansader, Honoria; Susan Charles, Anchor. (Center) Sigrid Tobiason, Chairman of the Awards Committee. Tri-M, Music Honorary, held the trophy for 1957 and 1958.

Famous Hialeah beatnik, John Olivero stated, "Man like this should be a real bohemian blast. Ah hoe all mah frien's wheel over from their pads long enough to partake of some wild jumping, besides Key Club needs the lettuce."

Aqua-Teens Will Once Again Perform at the Honoria Luau

"Splish splash, and I wasn't taking a bath." This is the practice song of incoming members of Aqua-Teens. The H.H.S. tapes are producing a water ballet for initiation into the club. A swimming examination will also be given them.

The tapes are Maxine Griffin, Billie Jo Kilgore, Rose Camus, Sandra Lindsey, Judy Killough, and Karen Sjogren.

The water ballet was presented Thursday, April 3, to the old members of Aqua-Teens.

Once again, Aqua-Teens have been popularly requested to perform at the annual Honoria swim dance (having the "Luau," as its annual theme.) It was from this particular function last year, that Aqua-Teens was organized. It consisted of 5 girls, who composed a water ballet for the event. After the performance, it was suggested that they form a club to add a touch of uniqueness to H.H.S.

So with the great assistance and supervision of its sponsors Mrs. Betty Stoinoff, Mrs. Electa Griffin, and Mr. Landon Darty, an honorary sponsor, Aqua-Teens are now recognized as an official service club of Hialeah.

Honoria Has Splash, Splash

"Splash, Splash, give your car a bath!" was the song which was sung by many of the students who went to the Honoria Car Wash, which took place at the Miami Springs Recreation Center on April 4.

Top service and reasonable, as well, was had by all those H.H.S. students and parents, who attended the car wash. Not only did it benefit the club, financially, but it also built up better relations with the girls, themselves. Tickets were 75 cents and if one did not buy his ticket previously, he had to pay $1.00.

Among the upcoming projects of Honoria is its annual swim dance, at which time the official "Honoria Honeys" shall be announced and pinned. The girls have decided to make the theme of the dance also traditional, by announcing it as the "Honoria Luau." Much fun, refreshments, and entertainment can be had by all who attend.

Student Council to Choose the Outstanding Club of the Year

Once again Hialeah's Student Council is in the process of picking the outstanding club for the 1959 school year. This award will be the hardest selection yet.

"Each club had tremendous possibilities for the award," said Sigrid Tobiason, chairman of the Award Committee.

With Key Club and its many keys of success, Anchor holding on all the way, Wheel turning the wheels of progress, and Honoria cherishing their honor, Tri-M, Y-Teens, and Hi-Y serving the school and community with great sincerity, all truly deserve this cup.

A committee of six selected by the Student Council, will decide who they feel deserve this award, are T. Saladino, R. Caylor, B. Lamar, B. Pito, J. More, M. Hopkins, and S. Tobiason, Chairman.

After they have made their choice the reports will go to a committee of teachers, not known to students.

There will be silence thereafter till that day when Mr. Marvin Goff, activities director, announces "The outstanding club for the year of 1959 goes to"

Modern Dancers Attend Clinic

The H.H.S. modern dance group under the direction of Miss Dolores Jordan will attend the Dade County Modern Dance Clinic, to be held on Saturday, April 11th, in the Miami Jackson gym.

The dancers have been preparing for this and the music will be taken from the album "Summertime" and "Peter Gun."

Eighteen students will attend, and they will be divided into groups, alternating their movements of locomotor and axile.

Marching Band to Attend Bandorama

The H.H.S. Thoroughbred Marching Band has been invited to attend a Bandorama sponsored by the Ft. Pierce High School Band, April 17 and 18. Outstanding bands from the southern part of the state will perform in concert and half-time show revue before the members of the Ft. Pierce band and community. The Thoroughbred Band, providing plans are successful will leave Friday, April 17 and return Saturday.

The trip will be the first in an exchange program between various high school marching and concert bands in Florida.

Tri-M Taps 48

Modern Music Masters recently tapped 48 music students. The students will go through an apprenticeship period of six weeks.

The apprentices must serve on a project, pass an audition and a written and oral examination.

The formal initiation will take place in May, at which time elections for 1959-60 officers will be held.

The officers in charge is Judie Mason, Vice-President. All paper work and instruction are coordinated by her.

Martha Russell, newly elected Chaplain, will prepare the ceremony for the formal installation.

Bongo Brothers Make HHS Debut

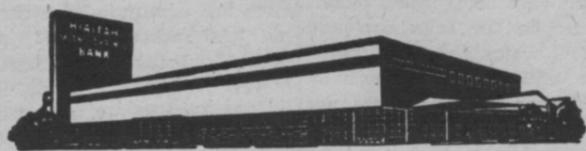

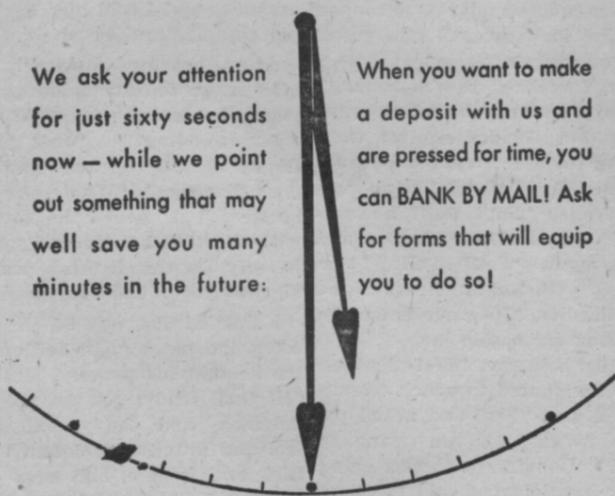

The Bongo Brothers, an up and coming Latin American Rhythm combo, composed of H.H.S. Seniors, will be present at the Beatnik Ball in May. The "Bongos" made their debut last March 15, at the P.B.A. dance in Hialeah.

Richard Curwell, the organizer of the group, plays the bongo drums. Albert Carus on the Spanish guitar, Bob Paladino on the claves, Frank Riddle on the conga drum, and Paul Gableman, maracas.

Anchor Admiral Chosen for 59-60

The hour struck eleven. Three boys walked slowly to the microphone. Quietly the President of Anchor Club announced that these three boys were selected as the top candidates in the race for Anchor Admiral.

Then Barney Evers was pinned as the 1959-1960 Admiral. Bill Williams was pinned as the first shipmate with Larry Camp second shipmate. A spotlight dance followed to honor the newly selected and now past Admirals and shipmates of Anchor Club.

Always one to add my two cents, I'd like to start off this week's column with congratulations to good 'ole "Boom-Boom."

STUFF N' NONSENSE

Linda Trout still has a hard time looking at a cake of soap, and no wonder—while brewing the stuff in chem. class, Linda turned green, and swiftly faded from the room for a quick gulp of O2.

Joanne Bijold was a panic in the class play, as were all the cast members. Mr. White really knows how to pick 'em!

Wheel Club had better be careful where they put their engraved signs. Any day now, I expect to see John Olivero with a "compliments of Wheel" sign hanging from his forehead!

Regardless of what Channel Seven claims, Mr. M. T. Graves is really Jim Richardson . . . It's amazing what makeup will do, isn't it? (This can be interpreted according to the wiles of your respective imaginations).

Several people have inquired who Terry is, and whether or not he is real or fictitious. To tell the truth, I sometimes wonder . . . He and that nine foot rabbit are beginning to bug me!
