

Y-Teens Install New Officers

"This year Y-teens have had some of the most active girls ever. All have truly worked for the club with all their heart, mind and soul," stated outgoing Vice-President, Sigrid Tobiason.

The Recognition Service was a ceremony which recognized deserving Y-Teens who had sincerely been outstanding Y-Teens. It was held April 22 in the Little Theatre. It was the tradition that the Vice-President of the club, be in charge of this program.

The program consisted of installing new officers for the year of 1959-60, with President, Vicki Carlisle; Vice-President, Dianne Davis; Secretary, Judy Cropp; Treasurer, Gini Seamens; Historian, Sandy McCord; Parliamentarian, Betty Sargent; and recognizing outstanding Y-Teens.

Mrs. Dorothy O'Donnell gave the welcoming address to the friends and parents of Y-teens. Chaplain, Vivian Holt read the devotions.

Then each retiring officer, who had burning candles, blew them out, symbolizing their office was completed. Each new officer was announced and likewise took a lighted candle symbolizing their new term beginning.

Library Delegates Represent H.H.S.

Three library delegates plus their sponsor represented Hialeah High at the annual Florida High School Library Council, April 24, 25, and 26th, at the Methodist Youth Camp in Leesburg.

Those representing H.H.S. were Pat Barber, who holds the State office of representative of District No. 4, Turville Haville, Robert Davis and Mr. Gus Adams.

Approximately 60 students and their sponsors attend from Dade County each year.

Besides book talks, panel discussions, book exhibits, and buzz sessions, several speakers were presented and two well-known authors, Stephen Meader who writes boy stories, and Marion Murray who writes circus stories, whose books are available in H.H.S. library.

But in all business and formal meetings, recreation was also provided. Swimming, boating, dancing, and other recreational sports, were on hand.

POSING after their performance in the Honoria swim dance are Angela Caione, Beverley Calvert, Pat Barber, Sandy McLaughlin, Shirley Wells, Bonnie Adkins, Betty Kraus, and Judy MacMillan.

Honoria Features Aqua-Teens In Dance, 'A Night in Venice'

Returning once again for the annual Honoria swim dance, in producing superb entertainment, were Aqua-Teens. This year the club took on the unique theme of "A Night In Venice," rather than the "Luau" which was previously announced.

This traditional dance was held at the Airway Hotel in Miami Springs, on Saturday, April 25. Splashing and dancing began at 7 p.m.

Aqua-Teens contributed three water ballets in which the new tappees, Karen Sjogren, Sandra Lindsey, Judy Herold, Maxine Griffin, Judy Killough, Fran Richards, Dianna Kourtis, Rose Camus, Betty Kilgore, Martha Iderton, Carol Fosset, and Beth Davis, also performed.

Along with much fun and entertainment, came the long-awaited announcement of the Honoria "Honeys," at which time they were pinned, with distinguished "Hon-oria" pins, and were then congratulated by all.

Exotic and magnificent decorations surrounded the pool, to greater fulfill the exciting atmosphere of the theme. Along with balloons, completely filling the pool, and artistic displays of various assortments, the scene truly signified "A Night In Venice."

Anchor Busy New Projects

Along with the other service clubs at H.H.S., Anchor members are among the hopeful who are waiting for the announcement that will tell what club has done the most service to school and community.

Though the applications for qualification have already been turned in, club members are searching again for services they may render to the school.

Each club, of course, needs money and fun, but it is a credit to the club to be able to do something without profit.

Among Anchor's new projects is consideration of sponsoring a Senior Slave Day.

The time of the year has also come when clubs start considering the tapping of new members and the election of new officers.

Majorettes Achieve Fame In Florida State Sr. Championship

Junior Civitan Choose Delegates For Convention

The Hialeah Chapter of Junior Civitan is preparing to send its delegates to the Annual State Civitan Convention. This year's convention will be held May 6, 7, 8, in Jacksonville.

Each year when the senior club, Civitan International, holds its convention, the junior clubs combine for one large delegation at the same place.

Although having their conventions together, the junior and senior clubs participate in separate meetings and discussions, with one large combined meeting for a joint discussion.

While at the convention, the delegates will take part in business meetings and planning discussions as well as social events.

Planning to attend this year as Hialeah's delegates are Ronald Kirschbaum, Howard Kernodle, and Pete Perino.

The HHS Thoroughbred Marching Band Majorette Corps, under the direction of Beverly Calvert, captured the Florida State Senior Corps Championship title in Class B division, (first entrance in contest as a group) April 11, at the Peri Mickle Field in Ft. Lauderdale.

Competing against top corps from Pompano Beach High, Coral Gables Guards, Dixie All Stars, Eustis Show Dolls, and the Hi-Toppers of Miami, the eight girl squad was unanimously awarded the tall golden trophy by judges Carl D. Dunn, Louisiana; John Large, Pensacola, Jackie Uortante, Miami, and Linda Bean, Tallahassee.

The squad was graded on individuality in routines, strutting, marching, and maneuvering, twirling and presentation within an eight minute period. Also, a strict military inspection of each girl was issued by the judges.

The championship contest is held each year and sponsored by the National Baton Twirling Association. This is the first time a squad has been entered from Hialeah High.
