

Turn Rags to Riches. Watch for it May 7th. Senior Dress Up Day

The '59-ers

"Success is never final and failure never fatal" can well be the motto for the awards program given May 7.

Senior Stars Shine

Who Will Cop Acting Award?

Which ones will be chosen? Who will the awards go to this year? The decision, this year, for the judges, to choose the best actor and actress of the year will be a tough one. All of the candidates are certainly very eligible and they have wonderful talent. Some of the talent was seen in the Senior Play, "Lo and Behold," on April 2 and 3.

Among some of the candidates that the judges are considering are:

'59ers Look Ahead To the Different Aspects of Life

Charlotte Harney is now employed part time at A&M Insurance, where she will continue working through the summer. In the fall she plans to enter Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. Charlotte will major in sociology.

George Ricker will be holding down two jobs this summer to help finance his college education. George will enter the University of Miami, in the Fall, as a psychology major.

Judy Mason will attend David Lipscomb Christian College in Nashville, Tennessee. Judy will major in religion.

Allan Dermott is planning to attend Florida State University. He plans to major in mathematics and later enter the field of mathematical education.

Sharon Tombley will be off to Florida State University next Fall for a major in elementary education.

Lorna Taylor will be moving into Jackson Memorial Hospital next fall. Lorna will be one of the many Hialeah Girls entering Jackson Nurses Training Program.

Charlotte Harney, Sara Parise, Joanne Bujold, Shirley Wells, Judy Seeber, John Bernette, Jay Burke, Mike Karpchuk, and Mike Willis.

Awards Awaited

Hialeah's annual awards assembly will be held on May 7.

Not only will the top scholastic achievers be presented with scholarships, trophies, and money, but the Senior Superlatives will be announced and they will receive a token for their scrapbooks.

This assembly will not drag. Every moment will be filled with suspense and anticipation. Many a sigh will be heaved as a student does not receive the award he felt he so sure he would win, but there will be just as many gasps of joy when an unsuspecting Senior is presented with a certificate, trophy, or title.

Hialeah's outstanding organization will be announced and they will receive a trophy. The decision will be made on the basis of the clubs service to the school and community. Every club member will be on pins and needles, but this is what makes an awards assembly so special.

County Y-Teenagers Pick Top Members

Fulfilling Y-Teens' goals, outstanding and sincere service to Y-Teens, perfect attendance at all meetings, a pleasing personality, and someone who is well liked by all. This girl will be elected by 800 Y-Teens in Dade County. There are only three nominations for this honor: Letty McConnell, Miami Senior; Charlene Gould, Hialeah High; and Sigrid Tobiason, Hialeah High.

On May 4 the "Spirit of Y-Teens" will be announced. She will be presented a sterling silver bracelet with a silver disc engraved "Spirit of Y-Teens, 1958-1959". Also at this meeting the outstanding Y-Teen club in Dade County will be revealed. Hialeah High has won this trophy for 2 years straight, and if they win it a third year, it will be presented to Mr. Pease at the Awards Assembly. Sigrid Tobiason, Hialeah High, retiring president will present the gavel to Ginger Merehling Jackson High, newly elected president.

Seniors Wind Up Busy Year

Banquet Best Yet

If you woke up Sunday morning with a stomach ache, you couldn't blame it on the Senior Banquet. Everyone agreed that it was the best banquet yet held by a senior class at Hialeah High. It took place Saturday night, April 18, in the Flagler Room at the McAllister Hotel. It started at 7:30 and ended at midnight; the banquet itself lasted until 9 and then the room was turned into a dance floor for dancing and a program put on by various student groups.

The tickets cost $3.50, but the Senior Class took $1 out of its treasury for each ticket. About 325 students were in attendance. Senior Class Sponsor Darryl W. Johnson, made a speech; the eloquence of which was exceeded only by its brevity. He later referred to it and said, "It was great."

Several other Seniors commented "It was a real blast." Bob Tafel, Senior Class President, stated "The Senior Banquet was a big success; I enjoyed it tremendously. "Should have been more food," exclaimed Bill McIver.

"The Senior Banquet of '59 was the best ever," said Jodie Clark.

Seniors Skip School

Skip Day, here we come. That long awaited chance has finally come, the Seniors can skip legally. There will be swimming, canoeing, horse back riding, and lots of fun.

The class decided to go to Birch State Park in Fort Lauderdale.

When May 8th rolls around, underclassmen look out, the Seniors will be there bright and early (well, early, anyway), at 8:15. They will report to homeroom and leave before school starts.

Seniors will grab their portable radios, food, and all they need to have fun and make this a day to remember.

A Night of Splendor

A pleasant end to any senior year is complete only after the entertaining, dining and dancing of the Junior-Senior Prom.

This affair is the annual "farewell" dance given by the Junior Class for the Seniors. The evening's dance and a moon-light boat cruise are planned with the utmost care, while envisioning the gala event as prepared for them the following year.

At present, prom-goers are looking forward to an evening of dancing at the Everglades Hotel on May 22, and the following parties and dinners which will last through the rest of the week-end.

SELLING TICKETS to the Senior Banquet are Joe Godfrey, Carol Albury, and Sherry Dunn. Sandy Adams presents her 16 bits and is the proud owner of one.

Senior Class Calendar

That long awaited senior year is practically here and gone. The following is a list of senior activities to celebrate graduation.
May 7—Senior Awards Assembly and Senior Dress Up Day. There will be an assembly in the auditorium.
May 8—Senior Activities Day to be held at Birch State Park. All seniors will report to their homerooms between 8:15 and 8:30.
May 22—Senior Prom to be held at the Everglades Hotel; seniors and juniors will be admitted free on special tickets. It will last from 9:00 until 12:30. After the prom there will be a cruise from 1:30 until 4:30; the cost will be between $3 and $4.
June 5—Graduation at the Dade County Auditorium, will begin at 2:00 P.M.

Seniors Vie for Scholarships

Your future may depend upon how well it is planned. Having the advice and help from Mr. Robert Mohr could help you to a better and more promising future.

Mr. Robert Mohr has information about all the colleges in the United States and this information may be obtained for the asking.

Mr. Mohr is willing to help any Senior preparing for his career. If you would go see Mr. Mohr with a problem, he will be more than glad to help you.

Let's be considerate and let him know if you have any problems and also if you have been accepted into your chosen career, so he may stop working on your problem and help other students on theirs.

Lou Moran has received a scholarship to the University of Tennessee; Dick Krtausch received one to Florida State and Bill McIver obtained one to South Eastern in Louisiana. William Blitch has been accepted into the Coast Guard Academy. Barbara Deater and Glenda Balowsky were awarded scholarships to Alabama College, receiving $250 and $100 respectively.

Although it is late in the year to be starting on plans for college, it can be done. Bulletins, pamphlets and other information are available for the asking. The facts on everything from tuition to laundry bills are handed out in the busy office in Room 105.

1959 Yearbooks Arrive
If you happened to be near room 313 on April 23, you perhaps heard the buzz of excitement. A green truck pulled up and then it was definite the 1959 Hi-Ways was here.

The staff had their annual party Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Alfreda Miller, sponsor. Sitting around eating hamburgers, looking with pride at their work, and signing the books, was the order of the day.
Students received their books Friday, April 24. Seniors were excused 15 minutes early to be the proud owners of their last high school yearbooks.
Y-Teens sponsored a dance in the cafeteria, where all could have friends sign their books.
