Home Room Turns Auditioning Studio

Every morning between 8:20 and 8:30, the senior homeroom of Mr. George Sirianni becomes a simulated Carnegie Hall. Tryouts for solos are at 8:15, when the tardy bell sounds. If the members of 12-7 arrive after the tardy bell, by accident of course, they will be honored with the chance and opportunity to audition before the class. This chance is not a matter of choice, but a demand brought about by their popularity, caused by the tardiness.

"Mary had a little lamb," "Swanee River", and "You are my Sunshine" are tops on the "612-Hit-Parade."

Stated Mr. Sirianni to an embarrassed tardy classmate, "You just don't realize the spirit you're giving to the students of this class."

In this homeroom the decision of the seniors is final. The soloist is either accepted, sings again or has an extra homeroom period at 3:05 P.M.

The purpose of this project is not to create opera singers, hot-dog sellers or to insult the delicate seniors, but is used as a warning to those that persist in holding up and delaying the progress of others.

Who knows 12-7, you may be discovered by "Arthur Sodfrey and his Galent Snouts."

Junior Writes Editor

Dear Editor:

As a junior I feel that seniors should have more privileges!

I believe they should have more senior servant days, skip days, a special line and section in the cafeteria in which no underclassmen can enter unless he is picking up paper or carrying seniors' trays.

Underclassmen should live by the rules and show respect and admiration to the seniors.

Just remember that you will someday be a senior.

FUTURE SENIOR.

Notes From The Record

By Dee Fincher

The Hialeah High RECORD was well represented at the Southern District Florida State Press Association held last week at North Miami High.

Six attending from the RECORD were Donald Dewhurst, Anthony Darby, Tish Groover, Marcia Newton, Pamela Salmon, and myself.

Ralph Morris represented the Hitways while Mrs. Alfreda Miller, advisor, also accompanied the group.

Speakers in the field of journalism conducted sessions on the different phases of newspaper and yearbook work. Photography was also taken up.

Mr. Herb Kelly of the Miami Daily News spoke during the luncheon.

Following the luncheon the students met in the auditorium for a discussion period conducted by Mr. Bill Crawford editorial editor of the Miami Daily News.

With the approach of National education week an old Persian proverb comes into my mind.

"He who knows not, and knows not that he knows not, is a fool, shun him.

He who knows not, and knows that he knows not is a child, teach him.

He who knows, and knows not that he knows, is asleep, wake him.

He who knows, and knows that he knows, is wise, follow him."

The Herald essay contest has certainly stirred things up at Hialeah. All the English teachers as well as a few others have their minds on producing a grand prize winner.

A student has nothing to lose by entering these contests and may unexpectedly come up with a prize winning piece of material.

The Senior's Dream

By Tish

As the senior in his classroom dozed,
Into his mind this dream arose.
Sophomores and juniors all bowing down,
While he, a senior, wore a crown.

They polished his shoes; carried his books,
And gazed at him with reverent looks.
If he was angry oh how they cried,
When he did approach all stepped aside.

Oh what a joyful heaven was this,
He smiled with joy and dreamed on in bliss.
Then from his dream he woke with a start!
Looked all about with a downcast heart.

Sophomores and juniors all stood around,
But not a single one bowed down,
They looked at him with insolent grins,
As if saying, "You know you can't win."

"We'll park in your lot and eat at your tables,
Heed not these 'senior privilege' fables.
There's time enough for that next year,
So step aside, you seniors, dear."

Teachers, Students Define What Education Week Means

The week of November 10-17 will be education week and many of us will be asking ourselves "What do I expect to get out of school? The teachers and parents will be asking "What do I want my student to get out of school?" Our parents, teachers, and someday employers have certain requirements they want us to have and use in order to meet their standards. Some of them express their this way:

TEACHERS:

Mrs. Alice Shepard, dean of girls. Has a daughter who is married now, but she had hoped her daughter "Got all the information she could and needed; to learn how to adjust herself to other people and to the world."

Mrs. Lucy Doby, sec. for deans. Has a daughter in Jackson High. She wants her to "Learn how to get along with other people; to be far advanced to know what she wants to be; to learn the rules of conduct for certain things she must obey in order to be an asset to society."

STUDENTS:

Delphine Rimbart, 11-4, "Hopes to find her future vocation in school and help to benefit herself with her vacation."

Angela Calone, 11-11, "Friends, education, that will help me later on in life."

Bob Tafel, 11-14, "To graduate in 1959."

Profanity Is Degrading And Expresses Nothing

The first impression of that nice looking young lady standing down the hall, by the school seal is one of much compliment. With the idea of being introduced, by the girl she is talking to, which of course you know, is very probable. With a haste you scurry down the hall with hopes high. As you draw closer you realize that the discussion has evolved into a heated argument. The language has suddenly become more than English. What is it they say? "Excuse the French?" Well if it has gone beyond that stage. You are so shocked with what you have heard that you stand there glaring, with the thought; how could such an attractive lady be equipped with such a free-flowing mouth. It makes you think doesn't it?

This article may be strong, but you, the students of this well-thought-of high school, know that every word of it is true. This familiar situation of cursing is well known. Every student of progressive H.H.S. is in contact with it. Boys, by all means are not expendable. They, too, are as much involved in the problem, as the girls are.

If you are an artist in this field, and you have noticed this article by some chance of fate, it is hoped that you will take a hint from this article, the student body and faculty of this high school, and use language more becoming to your reputation. If this is not possible, it is suggested that you place a governor on your mouth, as the reputation of Hialeah High wants no part of you.

Learn to Be Honest with Yourself

"Above this all, to thine own self be true". These words of wisdom were written by William Shakespeare over 300 years ago and today they remain as true as they were then.

Are you really true to yourself or do you rationalize your actions? For example, when report cards were handed out you find that you made a "C" in a certain subject, did you say to yourself, "Oh well, I'm only an average student in that subject anyway." Were you being truthful to yourself? If you had really applied yourself to that subject could you have made a "B" or maybe even an "A"?

Hangouts Will Breed Juvenile Delinquents

Hangouts will breed juvenile delinquents and bad habits. All cities have them, not just certain ones. In some neighborhood driveways you see a crowd of teenagers smoking, cursing and drinking. It not only ruins them but also the reputation of the city or town. This isn't saying that all places teenagers go are hangouts nor are they all delinquents.

Parents should take an interest in their children and promote their general well-being.

The official community should try to plan activities for the younger set in youth centers and places where they can go.

Even students can help others in staying away from these places. They can invite kids to their homes for a little get together or dance and sing. Such plans as these develop a wholesome atmosphere for the teenager and will keep them from becoming mixed up in unpleasant situations.

Lo, the Humble Sophomore!

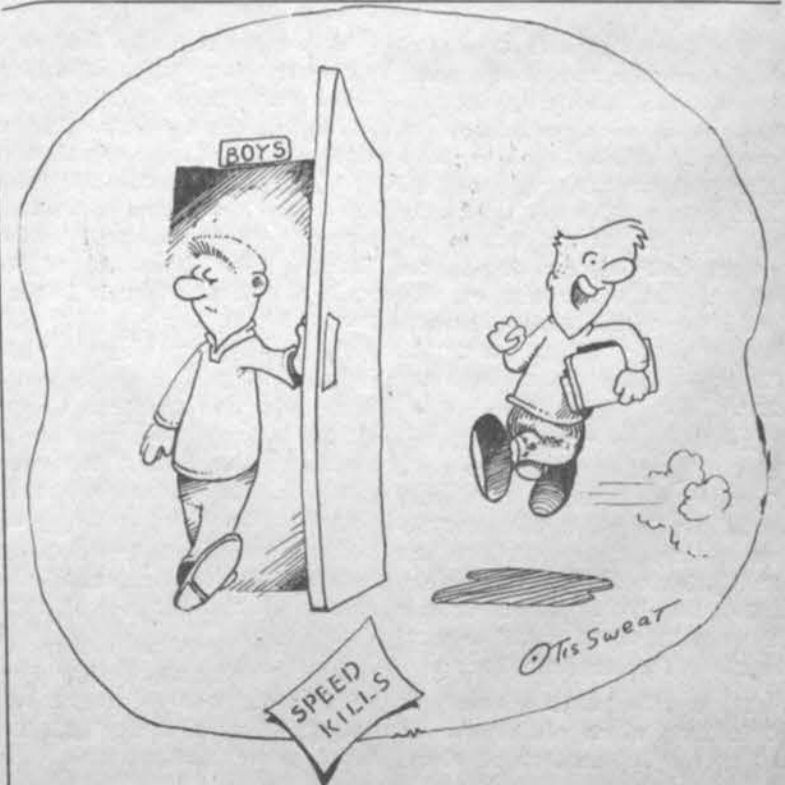

If sophomores have facility to contribute original ideas and devote their energies to a worthy cause, why not let them belong?

It has been said that some are born to follow, others to lead. Many sophomores have the initiative to take the plunge into an extra curricular and social life, while others stand on the sidelines; hesitant as to whether they dare or not. If so, give them a shove.

The duty of the upper-classmen is to set a good example. Encourage the sophomores to participate in school activities, student government, and to join clubs.

The "lowly ones" can slave away tirelessly, take all sorts of pushing and still survive. By making them an active part of Hialeah High now, we can better fulfill the tradition of our illustrious ancestors when we are seniors.

Next time you hand a sophomore your gigantic pile of books to carry and he looks up with such love and devotion, reward him with a bone of encouragement and he will be indebted to you always.

Never A Dull Moment When Sandy Displays Personality

As the strutting majorettes of Hialeah step out, among them is the smiling face of Sandra Cowern. Sandy has been on the squad for two years and has enjoyed every minute of it.

She is a native of Boston, Massachusetts, but has been a resident of Florida for a number of years.

To her friends Sandy is known as the gal "most desiring a toothpick."

"I can't stand to have anything between my teeth," she laughs. One of Sandy's acquaintances wrote a limerick for and about her:

"There once was a girl named Sandy,
Who ate everything which was handy,
But she surely would kick,
If in her teeth food did stick,
Till a toothpick made everything dandy."

Sandy has been the victim of many hilarious experiences, a few of which she relates as follows:

"During this summer some of the little children in my neighborhood decided that I needed some flowers. So, they pulled up all the plants from everyone's gardens and left them on my doorstep. Did

I have fun trying to explain as I returned the plants to their owners."

Sandy likes to bowl, which brings to mind amusing experience. While she and her colleagues were indulging in their favorite pastime, Sandy got up to take her turn. She walked confidently up to the rack of balls, picked up her trusty pin knocker, and without further hesitation dropped it on her toe. Well, she let out a yelp that brought all eyes in the place on her. Turning a beautiful shade of red she meekly picked up the trouble-maker and the game continued.

Then there was the time she got the brilliant idea to test human nature. She took the daily garbage, put it in a box, wrapped it with wrapping paper and a big attractive bow. Then she placed it in the middle of the street and waited to see what would happen.

Soon a car came along and slowed to a stop. A man got out and looked around and grabbed the package. Sandy always wished she could have seen the expression on his face when he opened his able package.

To be a lawyer is the goal which this ambitious girl has set. She intends to study at the University of Florida. Her suppressed desire is that she could be "the only woman lawyer in an all-male court."

School Saves Sadler From Plane Crash

The plane went down on the morning of October 6, halfway between Miami and the Bahama Islands. Sadler Yandell, a senior at H.H.S. and the left end on the varsity football team, has had many pleasure-packed hours in that very same plane, which his father owns.

His father owns 12 airplanes, which Sadler learned to fly at the age of 14. He could have been out on that Bahama trip that crashed, but he said that he didn't think he'd be back in time for school Monday morning.

Sadler is a private pilot himself, and the Bahama trip is so near routine. "Sad" remembers that he was flying his Navion back from the Bahamas when suddenly he was out of gas. He was all set to ditch when he discovered that he was flying on the wrong gas tank. A flick of the wrist, and he had another full tank.

He's still flying and still a senior. He is president of the Hialeah High Hi-Y Club, and on the varsity track team. When asked about what his future plans are, he replied, "Upon graduating, I plan on entering Emory College at Atlanta, and take up dentistry."

Wheel President Plans Good Year

Wheel Club President Rickey Dressell, an outstanding senior at Hialeah Senior High School, has announced that he hopes to make this a most successful Wheel Club year. Dressell, a National Honor Society member and Hi-Y member, also spends many of his activities outside of school participating in some of his hobbies.

Dressell has stated that he plans to attend college to study Agricultural Engineering. His college preference is the University of Florida.

The first activity that Wheel Club undertook this year, under the leadership of Rickey, was the building of a scoreboard for the football field.

When Dressell was asked how he liked Hialeah he stated, "I sincerely feel that the students at Hialeah are very friendly and nice. They try to make new students as well as the older ones here at Hialeah feel at home. Also the service clubs here at Hialeah afford the chance for students to meet and make new friends."

Senior Fred Grimes Finds That Varsity Experience Pays Off

After three years of varsity football experience with the Hialeah Thorobreds, Fred Grimes has become a coach himself.

Through this experience, he has gained the knowledge and ability to coach young boys eager to become future athletes.

At the present the team has a top weight of ninety pounds, and go by the name of their sponsor, North Hialeah Optimist.

Fred was asked by the sports director last fall to be the coach of the Little League team. Fred accepted the position. Stated Fred, "I enjoy working with boys when they show me an interest in the sports I like. What little I know, I enjoy passing on to others."

The eleven-year-olds are off to a pretty good season with one tie and two wins. They beat the Homestead team 28-6 last October 12 and went on again to defeat Hialeah Optimist 21-0 October 19.

Being athletic most of his life, Fred has been a counselor in Virginia called "The Oakland Farm Camp" for three months. He was also a representative of Miami at the age of fifteen on the Miami football squad which met in Lakeland for the national competition games. The Miami team defeated Dallas, Texas, and lost to Knoxville, Tennessee.

From there he made varsity football, basketball, and track when he entered high school. He was named "Player of the Week", by the Miami Herald back in tenth grade. Three years he played end and quarterback for Hialeah, before taking the coaching position.

From there he gained recognition from the Home News on his team's winnings, by a nice writing and picture written in the October 18 edition.

As to the future for Fred's career in athletics, he is giving great consideration to a physical education.

Save Now For Final Payment

It is all over now—you think. Since the subscription deadline is past, you might think the work of the HI-WAYS staff is finished for the year.

Actually they still have a long drive ahead of them. There are three annual deadlines, not one, for the HI-WAYS staffers to meet. The second deadline is December 15, and the third is in February. This date will mark the mailing of final copy to the publishing house in Texas.

The annual staff, after working quite hard on painting subscription drive posters, was quite worried when the material for completing copy hadn't arrived from the publishing house. The long-awaited materials finally arrived Tuesday, October 15, the deadline date. What did it contain? You guessed it! Subscription drive posters!

You also have more to finish. If you have made your first payment you still have another to complete. Begin to save and hoard for this final payment in December.

Science Scholarship Took Biskup to North Carolina

Mr. Lou Biskup, HHS biology teacher, spent his summer at the University of North Carolina. He went there on a National Science Foundation Scholarship.

Born in Chicopee Falls, Massachusetts, Mr. Biskup attended two colleges, Springfield College, in Springfield, Massachusetts, and another teachers college, Columbia University, New York.

Mr. Biskup's hobby is golf, but he plans to help Coach Brawner get some of the boys in shape for the coming basketball season.

"Everything I do (I guess?)" was Mr. Biskup's answer to: What was the most exciting thing that ever happened to you?

The most embarrassing thing ever to happen to Biskup was having a referee call a technical foul on him as a basketball coach in front of the whole school.

Before becoming a biology teacher, Mr. Biskup was a coach. Because of bad health he had to quit coaching, and that is when he learned the background of science and became a biology teacher.

He came to Florida in 1954, and has been teaching at Hialeah High since then.

Autos Tickle Tish's Imagination

By Tish Groover

The 1957 model cars can prove a source of unlimited fun for anyone who possesses an imagination. For if you study these cars you can come up with some surprising results.

Take for instance the Plymouth, it looks like something with the mumps (on the wrong end).

The Mercury, from the back, bears a strong resemblance to a Chinese bug.

It appears that someone cut the sockets for the headlights in the back end of the Ford, by mistake, of course. So instead of going to the expense of building new bodies, they made larger tail lights. The result: when driving behind a Ford at night wear sunglasses.

Now the Cadillac with its exaggerated tail brings to mind "the good ole days" when the bustle was in style.

But the Edsel beats them all. It looks odd from both ends. The back end, with its squinched up tail lights, remind a person of the near-sighted Mr. Magoo. While the front with its odd grill resembles an "Oldsmobile sucking a lemon."

Music To Type By

Music soothes the wildest beasts. For once the poor old typewriter gets a soft stroke and its carriage is thrown to one and two and three and now. For a day the typing rooms are all stroking together, key by key, word by word. This is the day of peace and smiles instead of the clicking and frowning and erasers going like crazy.

Typing I and II students are typing to music, a pleasant change from the haste of the every day class.

BYE TO JEANS!

A final farewell was said to Jean Dulin by all her friends on Saturday, October 19, as she left for a two-year stay in Alaska with her parents. Jean wanted everyone to know how much she would miss them and hoped they would write to her as soon as she could send her address.

PRETTY CUTS

More pretty hair cuts have been seen around Hialeah's campus lately. Virginia Coleman said "adios" to her long pony tail recently for a darling short cut. Joyce Adams, Loretta Rompot, Virginia VanKessel, Margaret Molinari, and many more have also had their locks trimmed shorter than usual. Marilyn Stone has been having her hair done in a silver blond tint which is entirely different and very becoming.

MARILYN CONFESSES

After being chosen the H.H.S. Homecoming Queen of 1958, and crowned at the half-time of the Hialeah-So. Broward football game Marilyn Jones confesses that in her excitement about the honor she did cry a little.

Her court, (juniors) Beverly Calvert, Carol Curry, (sophomores) Dorine Sharpe, and Linda Trout all looked lovely in their formals at the dance in the school cafeteria, following the game. Roberta "Bobbie" Calvert, last year's queen presided over the crowning, coming all the way from the University in Tallahassee.

ALUMNI SEEN

Some of Hialeah High's first alumni class were seen at the Homecoming game and dance, October 20. They were: Sue Fickling, Gall Shaughnessy, Charlotte Zeletes, Barry Bailine, Mike Thrash, Ed Barber, Mike Davis, Bill Hoy, Helen Cavalier, Tom Codrick, Vince Spiaggia, Ronnie Helmke, Jim Goddard, Andy Lopicola, Patti Laye, Ed Little, and Joe McAllister. How glad everyone was to see the old group and have a few moments to reminisce over old times, (even though they're not so old!).

EXPERIMENT EATEN

Warren Smith, Science Research student is working on an experiment with white rats. Or at least he was at one time, (that is before the rats ate each other!) Warren was quite infuriated with the whole thing. Do you see his point?

DANCING BOYS

Modern Dance, taught by Miss Dolores Jordan, has now added 10 male members to its population. This fourth period class consists of 30 girls and 10 boys. They are taking this as an aid in either their gymnastics courses or the like. It is to help them develop poise, better posture, gracefulness and muscle control.

CHILL ARRIVES

Finally a little chilly air and a crisp breeze arrived in Miami this month. Let's hope that this year we'll have a Christmas with some fireplaces going. Miami has always been slow to get its share of the winter. Everyone is dying to wear winter clothes.

TRICK OR TREAT!

That old, well used phrase of "trick-or-treat" got its annual work-over once again on October 31, Halloween night. We sincerely hope that not too many of our high school students got sick on all that candy.

FLU TAKES OVER

The ever unpopular Asiatic Flu, otherwise known as the "Flu Manchu", has seemingly taken over the attendance at all schools. One Monday, the early part of October, the deans of Hialeah found some 300 students missing. In the following days the absences increased 50 a day. Things seem to be picking up though, so there really isn't too much to worry about.

WATCH THE DRIVER

It is now the pedestrian's turn to watch the driver. At least while in the school area during school time. Janice Beaucage, Janette, Janenne Wills, Alice Mazingo, Carol Curry and Virginia Van Kessel are only a few of Miami's future drivers taking Driver's Ed. at school. Mr. Lewis Swezy, and Mr. Anthony Quaranta, instructors, really have a lot to put up with, but patience is a virtue and these teachers have been blessed with this asset and teach their pupils to the best of their abilities. Every student will have a chance to receive his or her adult license in the month of January.

Plotts And 35 Boys See Opa-locka NARTU

Escorted by Mr. (Lt.) Paul L. Plotts, 35 boys from Hialeah visit the Naval Air Reserve Training Unit, at the Opa-locka Marine Corps Air Station. The tour was started by a welcoming and orientation speech by Commander Joyce.

The group was then shown a movie, "Sea Wings". This is the story of the two years of extensive training. Not only must the Navy pilot spend 18 months working with the propeller planes, he must train in the jets.

When the movie was completed, three members of NARTU guided the boys through the building and then they took a tour of the NARTU hangar.

The original plans were to take the boys up for a flight around Miami but orders came back from the Chief or Naval Operations to cancel the flight. In place of the flight the boys were given a demonstration of a mock rescue by helicopter.

Lunch was served compliments of the Marine Corps.

Mr. Plotts said, "I am sure the boys enjoyed the trip thoroughly. Plans are being made for similar trips in other high schools."

He also disclosed that the plan behind the trip was to present to the boys what the men of NARTU were accomplishing and to show what opportunities are available to young men in the Naval Reserve.

The NARTU club of Hialeah was an experiment by the Navy Department. At first the club was on its own. Then it gained recognition from the Navy Department and now they are fully behind the club. The club is celebrating its first anniversary.

Mr. Plotts announced that the club will hold the annual Christmas formal. Members of the club will wear their dress blue uniform.

Choral Students Entertain Airmen

By Dee Fincher

Participating in the Armed Forces Entertainment Committee, commonly called AFEC, is a group of Hialeah Choral students.

The students provided the entertainment during the floor show of a dance given, October 26, by the USO club at the Homestead Air Force Base.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams, co-chairmen, of the Homestead USO club, held a picnic at their home prior to the dance at the club.

The show was sponsored by the Hialeah Tri-M chapter as a service project to the community.

Heading the show was Mr. Bill Inglis. Working on the committee are: Dianne Smith, chairman, Judie Mason, and Bill Ferri.

Among the students participating were Linda Shipley, Beverly Calvert, Sandi Wiegman, Loretta Rompot, Bill Ferri, Dianne Smith, Judie Mason, and Barbara Sellers.

"RECORD" GETS COMPETITION

The Hialeah High RECORD has a music supplement here in school. Modern Music Masters has a club paper called "the Crescendo" which is printed bi-monthly.

This paper contains news about the projects, committees, alumni, other TriM. clubs in this community, and news of activities of the Music Department.

The paper has a rapidly growing list which includes: alumni, honorary members, active members, sponsors, and other clubs in the United States and Central America.

Maxine Gilliard, editor of the "crescendo" feels that much can be accomplished, through this paper, to advance Hialeah's Music Department and Tri M chapters.

By MARCIA ANN NEWTON

Yes, that's right—write to your old friends, the past seniors of Hialeah High, right now! Considering that this column is the first of a series, the purpose is explained as follows: this article, to be presented in every issue, will be devoted to names and addresses of graduates of H.H.S. If you find an address of one of your old friends you might like to drop a line to, this is for you.

Mr. Joe White really deserves the credit for the originality of this column and he has received letters from some of the following graduates at one time or another since June.

Well, here they are and I hope you find time to write to these members of our alumni as they will certainly be glad to hear from their home-town friends, we are sure.

Spanish Classes Enjoy Spelling

In a verbal battle of Spanish nouns, two final contestants finally decided on a draw, and became co-winners of the Spanish spelling bee held between Mr. George Sirianni's Spanish Classes on October 22nd.

Sara Parise and Pat Hamilton remained standing after all other contestants were eliminated to answer difficult questions in the final run-offs. As time ran out, it became evident each girl had met a real challenger in her opponent. Running a close third was Cathy Vito.

To advance to a finalist's position, the students must have had, according to Mr. Sirianni, a fairly good knowledge of recently learned Spanish words, their synonyms, antonyms and spelling. However, the close of the contest, and it had become apparent both finalists were equally well acquainted with these other phases of Spanish grammar were called upon in order to eliminate one of the contestants.

Besides the two winners, other finalists were Cathy Vito, Julie Bullard, Bob Linden, from the first hour class, Ray Chapman, Pete Davidson, and Pat DeMarco from the fourth, Jackie Keuthan, Sara Lewis, Norman Hudson, and Lynda Albury from the third, and Kay Alexander, Judy Parnell and Barbara Hubbard from the sixth.

Alternates in cases of absences were Donna Skillman, Sharon Miller, John Sandifer, Frank Akin, Chuna Sugarman, Margo Blason, David Camp, and Dolly Ann Couch.

Hialeah Offers Night Courses

Parents attend night courses offered at Hialeah High four nights a week. Many of the same courses that are offered to the students during the school day are presented to parents at night. These classes are taught by Hialeah teachers with the exception of the sewing and gardening classes.

The sewing and gardening class is taught by an instructor from Lindsey Hopkins Vocational School and gardening meeting on Wednesdays is taught by Douglas Knapp of the Dade County Agriculture Department.

The other eight classes are: Meet-on Mondays and Wednesdays: Book-keeping, Crafts, consisting of ceramics, leather, plastics and jewelry, and Woodworking.

There are two typing classes, one meeting on Monday and Wednesday which already has 38 adults in it and one with 33 people which meets on Tuesday and Thursday. Mr. Roger Nederveld enjoys teaching this class. Of the 33 enrolled, 32 are women and one is a man.

Mr. George Sirianni has a Spanish class on Monday and Wednesday, and Mr. Benito Lueras has a Spanish class on Tuesday and Thursday, and are planning to visit a Spanish restaurant and see a Spanish movie.

Roberta Hands Over Crown

MARILYN JONES, the New Homecoming Queen for 1958 smiles joyfully at everyone through her tears.

Robert Calvert, Hialeah High's 1957 homecoming queen, lead off the parade of cars preceding the kick-off of the Hialeah South Broward game. Following in the next three cars were the queen's court, who were Carol Curry and Beverly Calvert, juniors and Linda Trout and Dorine Sharp, sophomores. After the parade the three senior finalists waited anxiously for the half-time, during which time the queen would be crowned.

South Broward in their red and gold uniforms entertained the spectators first. Their band and majorettes did a variety of song hits and then marched off the field. No sooner had they finished their performance when the Hialeah marching band, with their majorettes and flag twirlers appeared. The band first formed two hearts, side by side, with a sign in each one, saying "his" and the other saying "Hers", while they played "Hail, Hail, The Gang's All Here." Next, while playing the "Wedding March," the band slowly marched into one heart. Then while in that formation they played "The Anniversary Waltz" and held up a sign saying "us".

Quickly the band formed an "H" and played "Hey There" in honor of the Alumni. Keeping the same position, the band became silent as the contests were escorted on the field by Lyle Charles and Ricky Dressel, along with the 1957 queen, Roberta Calvert who then placed the crown on Marilyn Jones' head, as the crowd cheered happily. Next the H.H.S. band played

"Hamlet" To Be Seen By Students

The film "Hamlet" will be shown for the first time in high school to the English students of Hialeah High, on November 23.

This will take place as a field day project with students being excused from their classes in order to view this 3-hour long film. The film will be shown to all 11th and 12th grade English students and also some 10th grade English students. This is one of the many benefits the students receive from the fees they paid at the beginning of the year.

"Hamlet" has never been released before at popular prices and is one of the greatest films that has ever been shown.

This film is in black and white, not technicolor; as color feeds the senses and clogs the mind, and this is not a poem of sensuousness; but of sensibility. There is little novel interpretation of character: even that might detract from the great language or distort it.

The cast includes Jean Simmons, Norman Wooland, John Laurie, Basil Sidney, and Laurence Olivier. It is produced and directed by Laurence Olivier.

TEACHER ATTENDS NIGHT SCHOOL

You've heard of students going to school. Well, quite a few teachers are guilty of the same thing. One of these, Mr. Walter Walker, a language teacher of Hialeah High goes to the University of Miami every Monday and Wednesday evening.

He is taking a course in Russian which Mr. Walker reports is an especially interesting class and made even more interesting by the professor, Mr. Fridel.

Mr. Walker has been taking Russian for three weeks. "We started from the bottom up, and Russian is much harder language than others." Mr. Walker says.

He feels that more people should learn it as Russia is the largest country in the world geographically.

Mrs. Fridel, the professor, was born in Russia, and came to America in 1917 after the Russian Revolution.

Mr. Walker is willing to share his knowledge with any interested student. He is also willing to make arrangement for visits to his class.

Hialeah High Chorus Busy Working With Activities

IT'S TAMPA TIME

The time has come for the endless "Tampa Clinic" rehearsals. Almost every day of the week you can hear hopeful students in the choral room learning songs for the Florida Music Educators Clinic. The clinic, commonly called "Tampa Clinic" is held in Tampa early in January.

A group of selected students will represent Hialeah High. This group has not been selected yet but will be by the end of November.

There are 6 student directors who are teaching the songs to be sung at the Clinic Concert, they are Sylvia Buck, Judie Mason, Sandi Weigand, Lois Ann Polle, Wesley Calvin, and Dee Dressel.

A student who attended clinic last year had this to say: "It's loads of fun, but there is a lot of hard work, too. If you go over expecting it to be a joy ride, you are better off not going."

GIRLS BUY DRESSES

The girls of the advanced chorus have bought themselves new dresses. They are black sheaths and have a multi-colored sash.

During the first part of September and the last part of October each girl bought 10 per cent of the full payment of the dress.

They are coming in on the 29th of October and the girls will receive them the 3rd or 4th of November.

The dresses were ordered from the Diana Shops in the Flamingo Plaza Shopping Center in Hialeah.

QUARTET SINGS

Members of the Hialeah High Chorus formed a quartet to sing for one of the Miami Springs Methodist Church socials.

The affair was called "Ladies Night" and a steak dinner was served.

The quartet, accompanied by Beverly Calvert and directed by Dee Dee Dressel, consisted of: bass, Bill Ferri; tenor, Wesley Calvin; alto, Sandi Weigand; and Soprano, Judie Mason. They sang "Attend Our Prayers" and a series from the Broadway musical "Oklahoma."

Flu Fly Flew Around Hialeah

Last seen traipsing unsteadily down the hall was a typical Thoroughbred who, between violent sneezes and wracking coughs, was viewing the world in a despondent manner through watering, bloodshot eyes, result of a restless and miserable night.

This could well describe a large portion of the student body, for the flu bug is having a free-for-all here at Hialeah. Those more fortunate may be entertaining a distorted view of what having the flu would mean to them. Namely, a week comfortably at home away from books, homework and teachers. Should they be favored by this outrageously fast working germ, they would find it's not as inviting as it sounds. Because when you feel as though you're on your deathbed and should be considering that "last will and testament," it's certainly no time to do anything but be extremely miserable.

"Oh come now," you say, it's not as bad as all that. Well, let's look closely at that student home for the third day with the flu. He looks rather unhappy, seemingly conscious from a nightmarish slumber only long enough to swallow millions of pills and aspirin.

How does our little bug choose his most unfortunate victims? Why pick on that student or that one? The germ does not take just anyone, only those privileged to be one of the following:

A RAIN GAZER. He is the poetic soul who stands mournfully gazing at the sky while rain enough to set Noah's ark afloat pours down on him.

Also included is the OVERLY ENTHUSIASTIC SPORTS FAN. He's the brilliant fellow who sits in the bleachers in the pouring rain after everyone has left, so he can see the last quarter. Should he take a realistic view he would notice the players had also gone home.

The JANUARY SWIMMER is the brave one who plunges into icy depths during the middle of winter. When they thaw him out his human icicle it's inevitable he will avoid winter swimming with the utmost fervor.

Of course a few just naturally get the flu being as the bug just loves flitting to and from dearest friends who simply must visit one another while they're so dreadfully ill. It's such a shame for it leaves them no way to rebel against that

A Team Wins Championship B Team Bows to Beach High

By Brenda Wooten

Hialeah High girls accomplished the expected Thursday, October 24 when they won the "A" championship varsity volleyball for Dade county. They did this by defeating North Miami, Tech, Miami Beach and Edison Senior High Schools.

Although Hialeah's "B" team lost by 4 points to Miami Beach, they did, however, play a terrific, hard-playing game and scored every way possible, but Miami Beach was just too good for them.

Each school played 4 games with a bye or rest period. Hialeah did not play until 10:00 as their bye was running number one.

All the schools played a good game, but H.H.S. was too smart and tricky for them. The girls to be congratulated are: "A" team: Bonnie Boyer, Louise Boughner, Pat DeVito, Marian Finch, Val Finley, Jean Gypp, Pat Harris, Linda Lundbloom, Carol Rollinson, Nancy Smith, Carol Todd, Virginia Van Kessel, JoAnne Weeks, and Brenda Wooten.

The "B" team consists of: Carol Albury, Janet Armstrong, Bonnie Bowman, Annette Burnside, Patsy Delph, Sherry Dunn, Barbara Edwards, Pat Jettner, Gloria Killingsworth, Susan Kraft, Linda Law, Myrtle Lingard, Geraldine Noone, Sandra Powell, and Carolyn Pritchard.

The plaques and ribbons were presented by the Dade County Federation of Women's Clubs.

Modern Dance Teaches Rhythm

Over 200 girls and boys signed up for the Modern Dance class last year. Of these 200 only 45 could be chosen. The class is offered to eleventh and twelfth grade boys and girls. The 11 boys and 34 girls who were chosen were chosen on basis of skill, interest, and schedules.

The purpose of the class is to teach rhythm, musical background, composition, and to develop poise and grace. The students dance to records.

Miss Dolores Jordan, teacher of the class, said, "We hope to be able to give a performance in the early spring or by the end of the year."

outrageous germ. Therefore we leave them accepting their misfortune with a breezy nonchalance and saying their famous last words, "Oh, I won't get the flu!"

G.A.A.S Set Up Cheering Section

At the last football game the G.A.A.'s had a cheering section set up for the members of G.A.A. and their boyfriends. The object of the cheering section which will be continued, is to set good examples of school spirit.

When asked what she thought about the idea, Pat Harris, reporter for Hialeah G.A.A., stated, "I think it's a good idea because it raises school spirit." Carol Rollinson, President of City-Wide G.A.A. and member of Hialeah chapter also stated, "It peeps up the game and helps in the leading of cheers."

Girls Pass Officials

The official tests have been given and conquered by Carolyn Pritchard, Pat DeVitto, Carol Rollinson, Diane Linguard, Janet Armstrong, Nancy Smith, Margaret Pantuso, Sandy Scott, Linda Lundbloom, Myrtle Meeker, Sandy Powell, Rose Cherico, Sandy Getchman, Jerry Noone, and Frances Maxwell.

The girls who have passed their national officials are: Jean Gypp and Charlotte Keyes.

Hialeah Girls Guest Officials At M.S.J.H.

Twelve Hialeah girls were guest officials at Miami Springs Junior High School where the Junior Volleyball tournament was held. The twelve girls were selected on basis of the grades of their official test. The girls were Bonnie Bowman, Pat DeVito, Sandy Getchman, Pat Jettner, Charlotte Keyes, Linda Lundbloom, Sandra Powell, Carolyn Pritchard, Carol Rollinson, Sandy Scott, and Nancy Smith.

Another Victory For Volleyball Teams

In four unofficial games played Tuesday, October 14, Hialeah scored four victories. The scores were: court one: 23-14, court two: 29-17, court three: 33-21, court four: 17-15.

The teams consisted of: court one: Carol Todd, Dorothy Hood, Nancy Smith, Virginia Van Kessel, Marian Finch, Louise Boughner, Val Finley, Carolyn Pritchard, Sandra Powell, Bonnie Bowman, Margie Sloan. Court two: Susan Kraft, Carol Albury, Annette Burnside, Gloria Killingsworth, Sandra Johnson, Sharon Knowles, Diane Craft, Brenda Bordeaux, Donna Scott, Diane Linguard, Charlotte, Pat DeVito, and Pat Jettner.

Court three: Pat Harris, Sherry Dunn, Patsy Delph, Barbara Edwards, Bonnie Boyer, Lynda Law, Myrtle Meeker, Jean Gypp, Carol Rollinson, Linda Lundbloom, and Leanna LoFland. Court four: Janet Armstrong, JoAnne Weeks, Brenda Wooten, Joyce Wynn, Nancy Powell, Sue Sokolsky, Ruth Minor, Joy McCarty, Geraldine Noone, Margaret Pantuso and Elaine LeBow.

Hialeah Wins Again

Hialeah has done it again. For the second consecutive year Hialeah has held the office of President of City-Wide G.A.A.'s, but this year another honor has been added to the list. Along with Carol Rollinson being elected president, Pat DeVito was also elected City-Wide Chaplin. City-Wide representatives were Linda Lundbloom, Carol Todd, Margaret Pantuso, Elaine LeBow, Diane Linguard, Charlotte Keyes, Jean Gypp, Carolyn Pritchard, and Nancy

OOPS, MY MISTAKE

In my last column I said, "that 'Rebel' Bookman, and Don Bossler both played for Washington Red Skins." Since then I noticed my error, Bookman plays defensive halfback for the New York Giants and Don Bossler plays fullback for the Washington Red Skins.

I didn't realize there were so many people who could read and were pro-football fans.

SPIRITS HAUNT HIALEAH

Edison's "Red Raiders" may have beaten the Thorobreds by score in the latter's first Orange Bowl Classic, but they certainly didn't compare to the Thorobred's spirit. Edison fans were nearly shaken from their seats, when Hialeah scored their only touchdown. Matter of fact Hialeah cheered louder at that moment than Edison fans did all night put together.

BASKETBALL BEGINS

The basketball season has officially opened with about nineteen players out for afternoon practice on Tuesday's Thursdays, and Fridays.

The group is being coached by Mr. Lou Biskup until the end of the football season, when Coach Brawner will resume his duties. Lyle Charles has been elected captain of this year's team.

GRIMES COMBINES PLAYING AND COACHING

Fred Grimes has a busy schedule. He has basketball practice from 3 'til 4 o'clock in the afternoon and then from 7:30 to 9:00 in the evening. He is also a member of the Hialeah Athletic Club.

Freddy's team is undefeated and has only been tied once.

NEW FAD AT FOOTBALL GAMES

I spotted Dave Rayfield, Franklin Pope, Kive Goods and Dick Jarret all wearing Bermuda shorts in the Orange Bowl. There is a funny side to everything, you know, and in this case we didn't have to look far.

THEY WERE BIGGER

Just from a casual glance, I would say that Edison outweighed Hialeah by at least 30 pounds per player.

Hialeah Colts Bow to Red Raiders Power House 35-0

By Mike Powell

Edison's Raiders proved to be too much for Hialeah's Colts as the Hialeah team went down to defeat, 35-0. The Colts' defense was not as much like a sieve as the score seemed to indicate. Quite a few times during the second half the Edison team was thrown for considerable losses as the Colt line penetrated the Raiders' backfield.

Four of the Raiders' markers came in the first half and three of these in the first quarter. Hialeah was hampered by fumbles, but this is expected to be corrected in the near future by the capable Colt coaching staff, consisting of Coach Salek, Coach Brawner, Coach Kaspar, and Coach Parsons.

In the Colt line Bob Wilkerson and Blake Rowe seem to shape up as good varsity material for future Thorobred teams. While Art Lanco and Jack Whicker were outstanding in the backfield.

When looking back on this Colt season, remember that most of these boys are inexperienced and for some this is their first year of organized football.

However, the experience the boys gain on the Colt squad will make them much more valuable to the varsity team in the future.

Edison's J.V. team was large as J.V. teams go and the line was very mobile. Against the Raiders the Colt offense seemed to misfire but occasionally when things clicked they rolled for yardage, but were not able to keep a drive going for a score. The Colts next game will be against Miami Beach.

Hialeah's Cross-Country Track Team Opens Season with Match Against U. of Miami

2.2 Milers Face Toughest Match Of The Season

In the rain and on slick streets Hialeah's x-country team yielded to the speedy freshmen of the University of Miami. The U of M freshmen placed first and second then Hialeah's Tom Wallace came in third. The U of M took fourth, fifth and sixth, to give them a total of 18 points.

Coach Furnishes Refreshments

After the meet the team went to the house of Mr. Charles Ashworth for some hamburgers, limeade and cup cakes. The members of the team may have lost the race but if it had been a race for the cupcakes they would have won hands down.

Team To Return

Coach Downs of the U of M asked if the boys would like to return and run against the freshmen again. Mr. Ashworth and the team agreed to pay a visit on November 4 but it would not be slated as a meet, just for practice.

The way Hialeah placed were: Tom Wallace third, Art Baker seventh, Ray Morris eighth, Ralph Morris and Jim Phillips tenth.

Bull Dogs Bite T-Breds 18-0

Hialeah's Thorobreds took to the air against the over-powering line of South Broward's Bulldogs. Hialeah's quarterback, Paul Donaldson and Dick Krtausch threw a total of 17 passes and completed only 6 of them. King, Broward's quarterback, threw 7 and completed 4. The first was a 30 yard touchdown pass to Davis.

Broward Draws First Score

Steve Davis caught a pass from Steve King on the Hialeah 35 yard line, far behind the safety man and was in the clear to score the first TD for Broward. The Bulldogs tried to drive through the Hialeah line but it proved to be too much. Sam Seppilli missed the extra point.

Davis Boosts Total Points

Sam Davis, going into the game, was tied with a Southwest player for the leading scorer in the city with a total of 42 points. At the end of the game Davis had piled up 12 more points for a grand total of 60.

The fourth quarter proved to be a "do or die" situation for the T-breds, especially after Broward's fullback, Sam Seppilli went 40 yards straight up the middle for the third score. Sam Davis tried to make the extra point by drop-kicking.

Hialeah Knocks on Dogs' Door

After returning Seppilli's kick to the 42 Hialeah lost 9 yards on the next play. A 22 yard run gave Hialeah enough for the first down but the slippery football just couldn't be held and a fumble cost the T-breds the ball. Davis picked up 13 yards before the pigskin slipped out of his hands to be recovered by Hialeah.

South Broward picked up eight first downs to Hialeah's four. While the Bulldogs gained 109 yards on the ground, the Thorobreds had a minus 20 yards rushing.

Sloppy Field

Pre game participation made the field very sloppy. This held the two fast halfbacks, Allan Wright and Sam Davis weren't able to come through with their usual break-away runs.

Tony Turns Up

Have you seen Tony the Thorobred? Lately he has pranced through the halls on sweaters, blouses, shirts and jackets, of Hialeah boys and girls.

The silver and gold horse is a pin backed by a blue and red felt emblem. The cost of the pin is twenty cents and may be purchased from various G.A.A. members.

The proceeds from the pins will pay for the annual G.A.A. awards banquet to be held sometime in the early spring. The purpose of the banquet is to award letters, special awards, and plaques to students who have earned them.

HIALEAH STADIUM HAS BEST PRESS BOX

Coaches, spotters, and newspaper writers are now using the latest addition to the "Saddle" bowl, the press box. The box will hold about 20 people. Plans are being made to install a telephone and a box on top for the cameraman to film the games.

In addition to the press box the city also added new bleachers. The stands are capable of holding about 2,500. Last year the "Saddle" bowl was only able to hold about 2,500 at the most, now it will hold around 4,000.

Hialeah's Colts Romp Over Eagles For Year's First Victory

After a slow first half, the Hialeah Colts came back to overcome a 13-0 lead and beat the Southwest Eagles Jr. Varsity, 19-13. Hialeah's Colts held the Eagles to one first down but they moved over the goal twice in the first half.

First Quarter

Hialeah won the toss and elected to receive. Buddy Crabtree sent a 50 yard kickoff to the Hialeah ten. The ball carrier moved out to the 32 before the Eagles swarmed over him. Three plays later it was fourth and ten to go. The punt went to the Eagles' 15 where the Eagles ran it back to the 39.

Southwest lost five yards on the first play but came back with a 25 yard run. The Eagles fumbled and Hialeah recovered. In the first quarter Hialeah had possession of the ball most of the time.

Buddy Crabtree went 52 yards for the first touchdown.

Second Quarter

Hialeah moved deep into the Eagles' territory, but fumbled on the 13 yard line where Southwest recovered a pass from Norris to Crabtree who went from the 36 to the Colts' goal. The pass was good for 25 yards.

Third Quarter

Williams returned the kick to the 33 yard line where Art Lancore, on the first play scored for Hialeah, the play going for a total of 36 yards.

Hialeah kicked and recovered a fumble on the Eagles' 45 yard line. The Colts moved the ball to the Eagles 27 yard line before they lost a fumble. Southwest punted on a 3 and 12 situation to their own 40 yard line.

The Colts moved 40 yards in six plays for the second touchdown. The extra point was good.

Fourth Quarter

Southwest moved into the Colts' territory before they lost a fumble. Hialeah moved the ball with a 25 yard pass, then faced a fourth down and punted to the Southwest 13 yard line where the Eagles fumbled and Hialeah recovered.

On two rushing plays and one pass Hialeah went ahead 19-13. The game ended after the second play and the final kick-off.

Hialeah Bows to Edison Raiders But Not Without Battle to End

HIALEAH FANS GO WILD AS T. BREDS SCORES

Edison edged by Hialeah 45-7 before a crowd of 5,206. The Red Raiders saddled the Thorobreds in a contest which was at first considered the biggest "mismatch in local football." Edison scored in every way possible except by forfeit.

Libertore Leads

Quarterback Libertore led the attack on the Hialeah goal by carrying the ball himself eight times in the first period, along with Perk and Sanders.

Kick Off

Perk's kick went to the Hialeah 40 where a first play penalty set it back on the 35. Hialeah moved up to the 47 before they were forced to punt. The punt was taken on the 23 and brought back to the 39 before the Raiders were stopped.

Edison gained a yard on the play and then Quarterback Larry Libertore threw the first pass of the game. The 17 yard pass was intercepted on the Hialeah 38 yard line by Bob Taffell.

Touchdown

Dick Krtausch then took to the air but the ball was intercepted on the 50 and brought back to the 32. On four plays the Raiders gave the ball to fullback Sanders who went over from the 3.

HIALEAH THOROBRED TEAM charges into the Orange Bowl Thursday night before meeting Edison, the number one team in the state. Though they scored late in the game they still had drive all through the game.

Safety

Edison received a 5 yard penalty for being offside on the kick, so the second kick came from the 35. Hialeah downed the ball on the 13 on a pass play. Hialeah received a penalty for pass interference. Edison may have intercepted but Hialeah interfered.

Charles Adams tried to punt from inside the end zone but it was blocked. The score was then 9-0.

Hindman Scores

After a Hialeah quick kick taken on the 40, the Raiders, behind Libertore moved the ball to the Hialeah 24 in six plays. Then Hindman went for 24 yards for the touchdown.

Perk then added his second extra point of the game. He converted four out of six, plus a 15-yard field goal early in the second quarter.

Second Quarter

Hialeah was able to move the ball to the Edison 38 before Edison took over and were able to move to the T-Breds' 47 before Libertore was thrown for a 12 yard loss. The Raiders then punted to the Hialeah 11.

Taking advantage of their 27 yard lead, the Raiders set a 26-0 in the early part of the third period.

Libertore Skirts Ends

Libertore, on the keeper play, went around his right end for 18 yards to chalk up the fifth score of the night. Then he passed for 17 yards to acquire another six points.

Hialeah Makes 7

About mid-way in the fourth quarter the T-Breds moved from their own 32 to the Raiders' 39 by way of the air lanes. Then they used the ground to get to the four. Hialeah took a 37 yard pass and then went over on a quarterback sneak from the four. Gary Chamberlain plowed through the line for the extra point.

Edison then moved from their 35 to the goal on seven plays for the last score of the game.

Hialeah Colts Improve with Introduction to New Experience

Hialeah High's JV team, affectionately dubbed the Colts, are working this very minute in preparation for a game with Miami Beach.

The Thorobreds are attempting the biggest schedule in their history and the Colts are following suit with a schedule that includes such football titlans as Edison, Miami High, Jackson, Coraal Gables, and North Miami.

As the caliber of the varsity has improved so has the JV squad improved in character and ability each year. Last year the Colts had a record which on paper might have given the impression that the team was not up to par, however, you might also remember that they led Miami High for three quarters before going down to defeat, 20-14. They also beat Key West by a score of 27-13 in a game played at Key West which was quite a trip for the team.

The other outstanding game was played in Ft. Lauderdale against Stranahan. Bob Taffell scored three touchdowns through holes opened by Ron Lindquist, Bill McIver and the rest of the hard-working line. Dick Krtausch also played a superlative game, heaving a TD pass and guiding the team to three more. Since last year these boys have gone on to play varsity ball and rather well, too.

This year's JV team is made up of such players as Art Lancour, a halfback who shows great promise, Bob Wilkerson, a tackle who should prove to be partial solution to the graduation of Lebow and Novack and quite a few linemen who will help to make the varsity of coming years better. Any team will play better when they believe they have the support of their friends and classmates. So how about supporting the Colts with some of the same spirit and enthusiasm you give the T-Breds. Remember, these boys are the future varsity.

Hand Gives A Hand To Coaches

Walter Hand, a 17-year-old senior, played right guard and right tackle for the first three years for Hialeah's team. An automobile accident prevented Walter from going out for the team. This year Walter is the head trainer.

This primary job is to make sure all the medical equipment is on the field during all the varsity games, besides being assistant to the coach as medical director. Walter wraps the ankles of the linemen.

He is a member of HI-Y and the North Miami Chapter of the DeMolay. Walter is hoping to get into the Key Club.

When asked how he felt about Hialeah, he said, "It is the greatest school I have ever attended and I have attended North Miami." He then stated about the schedule, "It is the most challenging schedule Hialeah has ever had. I hope the rest are as challenging."
